Stakesby's News! 18th May 2018 (331)

Dear Parents, Carers and Families,
We are in the middle of the national testing season for primary schools. Children in Year 6, Year 2, and Year 1 all have some form of standardised test to take part in. We deliberately keep our preparation low-key to minimise the stress on our children and also ensure that it doesn't dominate the curriculum, especially in Year 6. Our Stakesby children are so much more than test scores. Each child is special and unique to us and we know them so well: their kindness, friendliness , who loves to sing, who is great at sport, who is thoughtful, who is funny.... We don't test for those qualities but they make us proud on a daily basis. Well done all of you for being who you are and being part of our brilliant school community.

British Values...Congratulations to Prince Harry & Meghan

American actress Meghan Markle is just hours from officially joining the royal family when she and Prince Harry marry on May 19 (that's tomorrow!). Like Kate Middleton, Meghan will have a new name when she becomes a member of our Royal Family. Meghan will be known as Her Royal Highness Princess Henry of Wales, using her husband's name. The Queen is expected to bestow the couple with the gift of a Dukedom, making Meghan a duchess.It has been rumoured that once married, the pair will become the Duke and Duchess of Sussex, meaning Meghan would thebe known as the Duchess of Sussex - much in the same way Kate Middleton became the Duchess of Cambridge.

Supporting Your Child At Home....with' real life' learning!

Still waiting for your invitation to THE wedding? So are we! Why not have fun with your child by organising your own Royal Wedding? There are lots of ideas online but here are a few to get you started:

- Design and write invitations to your family and friends.
- Write a menu and make it.
- Bake a cake.
- Role play the wedding using any old clothes,sheets, curtains as costumes.
- Watch the real wedding and talk to your child about what is happening.
- Older children could even write the Best Man's speech!

WHAT'S HAPPENING NEXT WEEK?

MONDAY	21ST MAY	Maple Termly Treat
TUESDAY	22ND MAY	Swimming Holly Class Transition meeting for pupils going to Eskdale (6pm in Eskdale school hall) FOSS Movie Night (DATE CHANGE from Thursday) - The Greatest Showman - for Wise Owls to Oak Classes
WEDNESDAY	23RD MAY	Forest Schools for Maple Class (please bring spare clothes!) P.E for Oak and Elm
THURSDAY	24TH MAY	P.E for Holly and Beech
