

Stakesby's News! 1st Dec 2017 (313)

Dear Parents, Carers and Families,

We received some amazing news this week. Earlier in the year, we were lucky to be chosen as one of three groups promoted by the Whitby Co-Op store as part of their Local Communities commitment. As a result of this, we have been presented with over £4000 to put towards developing reading at Stakesby. Some of our children went down to the Co-Op on Saturday to accept the cheque and say thank you on our behalf. A huge thank you also goes to Mrs Atkinson and Mrs Gurney who led and organised the process and gave up their time to take the children to the store. Roy Gunning

We recently made you aware that we have a governor vacancy at Stakesby. We received one valid nomination so, as there is only one vacancy, this does not require a ballot to be held. I am pleased to let you know, therefore, that Mrs Victoria Bellew will be joining our governing body. Vicki is well known to our school community as a parent, MSA and assistant at Breakfast Club and Tea Time Terrors. We would like to welcome her to her new role and thank her for her making this commitment to our school.

British Values...Democracy.at Stakesby

Visitors to our school often praise our children for their good manners. This doesn't happen by accident, good manners are learned through being treated with mutual respect and by having good role models at home and school. We should all feel very proud of our children.

Supporting your child at home with...Maths

One of the best ways you can help your child to achieve success in Maths is to help them learn their times tables. Maths becomes so much easier once you have some number facts stored in your head! There is no right or wrong way to learn but here are a few ideas...

- Times table posters-see it and say it!
- Chanting with a rhythm-feel the beat!
- Sing it!- make up a tune, sing to your favourite song tune or buy a CD/download one to sing along to!

As always, a little and often works best and make it fun!
